Trees and Graphs Explained

- Binary tree: each node has at most two children.
- BST: left < node < right; search is O(h).
- BFS uses a queue; DFS uses a stack or recursion.
- Graph storage: adjacency list is O(V+E).

Sample note shipped with Zelmoriq demo data.